

CSLP Board of Standards

AnnualCreditReport.com to inventory private student loans.

Federal Student Loans: Basics for Students

Description: Brochure providing students with basic information on Direct Loans, including eligibility, repayment, and responsible borrowing.

Federal Student Loans: Direct PLUS Loan Basics for Parents

Description: Brochure providing parents with information on Direct PLUS Loans for parents. Includes overview of eligibility, application process, and repayment.

Federal Student Loans: Repaying Your Loans

Description: Guide providing information about federal student loan repayment plan options, finding loan history and loan servicers, and making payments.

National Student Loan Data System to inventory federal loans.

Peace Corps and Repayment of Your Federal Student Loans

Description: Fact sheet that provides answers to common questions about repaying federal student loans for students serving in the Peace Corp.

Student Loan Borrower Assistance.org from the National Consumer Law Center provides free about borrower-focused information about repayment options, avoiding and getting out of default, and dealing with collections agencies.

The student loan decision tree from the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau guides borrowers through basic student loan options.

CSLP Board of Standards

StudentAid.gov is the official source of information from the U.S. Department of Education about federal student aid. Use it to research your options and:

- find your loan servicer
- estimate your payments
- apply for an Income-Driven Repayment plan
- apply for a Direct Consolidation Loan

The Institute for College Access and Success publishes state-by-state borrowing data, research, and policy analysis.

US Department of Education Student Loan Ombudsman may help resolve issues with loan servicing.